

Dunfermline Small-bore Rifle Club

Application for membership

Duty Officer: _____

Date: _____

On receipt of this application for membership, duly signed and dated, the DSBRC may admit the person named below as a probationary member. A fee of £2 (Adult) £1.00 (Junior) will be charged on every visit to the club until full membership is granted. A non refundable administration fee of £10.00 for adults and £5.00 for Juniors is payable when this form is submitted for probationary membership application. The probationary period is a minimum 6 months after which time the committee will consider the applicant for full membership. Before the committee will consider the application for full membership two referees must be supplied by the applicant, these referees must not be family members and must be known to the applicant for over two years. A written decision will be given as to whether the application is approved or not. If approved, a full membership fee will be asked for on a pro rata basis dependant on the period left for the current membership year. The committee reserves the right to refuse or terminate membership, probationary or full at any time in accordance with the club's Constitution. As part of the membership application DSBRC reserves the right to cancel membership forthwith if any false or insufficient information is supplied and on advice from Police Firearms Licensing.
